IN MEROIAM

IN MEMORIAM
In sad but loving memory of our dear Brother and Son, who passed away one year ago today, August 19th, 1958, Ernest Edison Warriner.
Today is a day of remembering,
and many sad regrets,
Today we remember, always remember,
when the rest of the world forgets.
A precious one from us is gone,
a voice we loved is still;
A place is vacant in our home,
which never can be filled.
When the evening shadows are falling,
and we are sitting all alone,
In our heart there comes a longing,
if you were only home.
God saw the road was rough,
the hills too hard to climb,
The sun will rise, the sun will set,
The night will follow day,
but one word we never say,
We'll never forget the night,
you went away.
—Mother, Daddy, Sisters and Brother. (1tp)

Sign-up For Progress For Farm Program

The sign-up for the 1960 Conservation Reserve is now underway in Appomattox County, W. D. Hix, III, Chairman of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee, has announced. Farmers who wish to put cropland in the Reserve must ask the ASC Committee to set a basic annual per - acre payment rate for the land offered. He said that the last day for filing such requests is September 10, and that no requests would be accepted after that date.

In setting the basic annual per-acre rate for land offered, the county ASC committee will take into consideration the productivity of the land and the rate will be limited to the local fair rental value of the land based on crops harvested from it during the past five years. When all eligible cropland on a farm is offered for the Conservation Reserve, the annual payment rate will generally be set 10 per cent higher than the rate for only part of the eligible land, Mr. Hix noted.

After the basic rate has been determined, the farmer may apply for a contract at any figure below the basic rate established for the land offered in the request for rates. If necessary, a priority system will be used to determine which offers are accepted.

Contracts under the Conservation Reserve may run as long as ten years. During the life of the contract, the farmer will receive an annual rental payment and he will also receive cost-sharing help in establishing approved conservation practices on the Reserve land, the ASC chairman explained.

For Appomattox County, the basic per-acre rate of payment under the 1960 Conservation Reserve is $14.56, the same as under the 1958 program.

Demonstration Club Schedule

Home Demonstration Clubs will meet as follows next week:

Sat., Aug. 29.- Liberty Chapel Club will meet at 6:30 P .M., with Mrs. John Gunter. Members and families are invited to attend and bring picnic supper.

Tuesday, Sept. 1.- Lee Club will meet at 2 P. M. with Mrs. W. E. Inge.

Thursday, Sept. 3.- Oakville Club will meet at 2 P. M. with Mrs. Clarke Moore.

Thursday, Sept. 3.- Rocks Club will meet at 7:30 P. M. with Mrs. D. R. Inge, with Mrs. Toby Inge as co-hostess.

Demonstrations on home - lighting will be given by Miss Lois Erdman, home economist, Vepco, Farmville.

The Federation Program is on mulches for flowers and vegetables and plans for Achievement Day.

Lions Club Meets Tonight

Timely reports and other important business is scheduled for the regular meeting of the Appomattox Lions Club this evening at 6:45, at the Virginian Restaurant. The Board of Directors will meet at the Restaurant at 6:15.

Current major project of the club is improvement of the local high school athletic field.

Emergency Treatment

Sydney, Australia.- Charles Peters was out duck hunting one fine Sunday when a snake bit him on the arm.

Peters took his gun and shot himself to allow the bitten part to bleed — thereby probably saving his life.

Peters was fined $2.25 in a subsequent court action for carrying a firearm on Sunday.

Like Peaches

Spartansburg, S. C.- Businessman A. D. Cudd, who is in Anchorage, Alaska, developed a craving for some home-grown peaches. So he telephones grower Paul Black and asked him to ship a bushel.

The peaches left by air express a few hours later. Shipping charges amounted to $69.88.

Bloodmobile Was Short Of Quota

Only 49 pints of blood were received here Monday, at a visit of the Red Cross Bloodmobile. This was a very disappointing total, as a quota of 125 pints had been assigned for this visit. The Bloodmobile visit was held at the Liberty Baptist Church. R. V. Jeffers, who serves locally as Bloodmobile chairman desires to thank all who donated blood, or offered to do so, as well as the volunteer helpers in connection with the visit.

Appomattox County has drawn heavily upon the Blood Bank in the Roanoke Region, and therefore the local quota had been raised to 125 pints. It is hoped that the next visit of the Bloodmobile will see donors making up the full county quota.

Reunion Date Is Announced

Descendants of the Marshall and Caldwell and their connected families and friends will assemble again at the same place, viz., the home of the late Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Marshall, near Spout Spring, on Labor Day Sunday, Sept. 6, for their annual family reunion.

Registration will begin at 10:30 A. M. A program is being arranged and a picnic lunch will be served at noon.

Traditionally, this is one of the largest family gatherings of the year in Appomattox County, with several hundred attending.

CENTENNIAL PLANS SHAPING UP

Washington, D .C.- With 17 programs definitely scheduled, and 10 others tentatively planned, Karl S. Betts, executive director of the National Civil War Centennial Committee, announced here today he is convinced the forthcoming five-year centennial of America's only internal war will be the greatest pageant in the history of the nation.

These programs have been planned by 13 states and the District of Columbia. Others are expected to be added shortly.

Only nine of the programs are identified as reenactments. The others are dedications and religious and educational ceremonies, most of them scheduled to take place on anniversary dates.

"In view of the fact that the Commission has been in operation only a little more than a year, I am well pleased with these results," Mr. Betts said.

"It is not our plan to tell any locality what sort of program it shall have. Our function as a national agency is that of encouraging and coordinating, but it is our hope that every community, no matter how large or small, will have some sort of commemoration during the Centennial to show its appreciation for the principles and heroism displayed by our forefathers, regardless of the side on which they fought."

Tobacco Growers Suffer Loss From Severe Hail Storm

A severe hail storm cut a swath across a narrow strip in Southside Appomattox County late Sunday afternoon, and as a result a number of tobacco growers suffered a sizeable loss.

The storm came slightly after 4:00 P. M., and the hail lasted for nearly twenty ccntly minutes. Also the storm brought heavy lightning, wind and a downpour of rain.

Among the tobacco growers most severely hit were R. L. Pankey, D. B. Irby, Emery Mullin, Pat and Lloyd Forest, Frank Moore, and R. O. Jones.

Mr. Pankey described the hail as the worst he had witnessed in his farming career. Pieces of hail up to an inch in diameter played havoc with his tobacco. He had part of his crop in his barns, but he estimated his loss as well over two thousands pounds of fine bright tobacco. He had of counding some tobacco leaves with over 80 holes punched through by hail, and said he would have a complete loss of the tobacco unharvested. He had planned to pull the rest of his crop this Tuesday.

He lives near Central Church, seven miles from Appomattox.

Two large oak trees were felled at the Chap Voting Precinct, narrowly missed a house.

Other portions of the area had scattered rain and storms. A barn was burned and a horse killed by lightning, near Oakville on the Thomas Phelps place, The Times-Virginian is informed.

We are also informed that Mr. E. Carter Martin suffered a heavy loss of his tobacco by hail. Mr. Martin lives on Route One.

A barn on the farm of Mr. Mott Harvey was also reported lost.

A tropical downpour hit other areas of the county, and a number of reports of lightning damage was on the list.

Cancer Drive Was Success

An excellent report has been made on the results of the recent Cancer Crusade Drive in Appomattox County. Mrs. George Abbitt, Jr., Cancer Crusade chairman, and Mrs. Jennings Conner, treasurer, report that a total of $1,063.89 was contributed during the drive, which began in April. Both were high in praise of the many volunteer workers who contributed so largely to the success of this worthy effort. The report shows that the results this year were higher than the normal for the county, which reflected the efforts of the workers and the increasing interest of the public in this activity.

DICKERSON REUNION

The annual reunion of the friends and family of the late Beauguard D. Dickerson will be held Sunday, September 6, at the American Legion building. All interested people are invited to attend.

County 4-H'ers Attend Meeting

Appomattox County is well represented at the State 4-H Electric Congress in Richmond. The Congress began Wednesday, August 26, and will close with the announcement of state winners, on Friday, August 28.

Gene Chernault, son of Mr. and Mrs .Russell Chernault, of Route 3, is attending as a county 4-H Electric Project winner in the boys' division. Luella Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Martin, Pamplin, is the county winner in the girls' division. Gene is a member of the Vera School 4-H Club, and Luella of the Lucky Clover 4-H Club. These two 4-H members have done outstanding work in their Electric Projects during 1959-60 and it is on the basis of their records of work done that they have been announced as county winners.

Percy Lucado, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Lucado, Pamplin, and Gene Carson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Carson, of Route 4, will also be attending the Congress. Percy will present the same electrical demonstration he gave during the State Contests at the State 4-H Short Course held this summer in Blacksburg. Gene will be assisting with the over-all Electric Congress. Percy is a member of the Lucky Clover Community 4-H Club, and Gene of the Hebron Community 4-H Club.

Mr. G. D. Gilliam, Jr., Assistant County Agent, will accompany the 4-H Club members to the State 4-H Electric Congress.

Brucellosis Control Is Planned Here

Appomattox County will begin an official test for Brucelosis in cattle starting September 1, it was announced this week. This is a joint state and federal program. Tests for Brucelosis may be made now, without awaiting the project, but as of the above date, a project will get moving to test cattle for this disease. First on the program project, to work the area south of Route 460 and east of Route 727. The people in that first area will be contacted by postal card, from Dr. Calvin E. Seay, local veterinarian, who will handle the project. They will be advised of the date on which he will visit their farm.

Voluntary cooperation of all farmers is sought for this project. Any calves 4 to 8 months old will be vaccinated. Other cattle over 6 months old, except steers, will be tested. This service will be free to the farmer. It is part of a long-range program to control Brucelosis in Virginia.

This is a valuable service to all cattle owners, and it is hoped that Dr. Seay will receive full cooperation.

BRIEFS.....

Crops Need Rainfall

Scattered showers have brought relief in some areas of Appomattox county. Some areas had downpours of rain over the week-end. Yet, the general picture is that August has been a "dry month" and more rainfall is needed to round up the over-all harvest prospect.

Many growers have reported to The Times-Virginian that their tobacco prospects this years were excellent. But other crops depend at this date upon a general rain.

Market Opening

The Old Belt Tobacco Markets will open on September 8.

Early reports from markets to the South, indicate that bidding has been good for the 1959 crop, and if growers can go to market with quality leaf, they stand to reap a fine return on this years fine-cured crop.

Cannery Busy

Seasonal harvesting has brought the Appomattox Community Cannery into active use, and large groups of producers have been making use of this facility this week.

Books For Library

In response to an appeal in last week's Times-Virginian, well over 100 books and magazines have been brought to our office for relay to Prince Edward County for use in their private schools this session.

School Opening

Appomattox County schools will open on September 2 for the new session.

Woman's Club Board Meets

The Woman's Club of Appomattox will hold an Executive Board meeting on Tuesday, September 1, in the County Library, at 10 A. M.

The president, Mrs. Martin L. Webb, requests that all board members be present at this important meeting.

"The Civil War Story"

Local Soldier Wrote to Brethren

"The Civil War Story"
(Editor's note: The following is a copy of an original letter found in the files of Liberty Baptist Church here. This church is now celebrating its 125th anniversary.)
July 4th, 1864.
To Brethren of Liberty Church and Christian friends who greet there to worship God. I have been called to go through many dangers admidst the storm of battle, and that many of my comrades have fallen on my right and left, and yet I am spared and I want you Brethren to help me to thank God for his goodness and mercies to such an unworthy being as I am.

Brethren, the Lord has been so good in sparing my life and blessing me with health while so many are afflicted but goodness and mercies have followed me through all of the dangers.

Brethren, I write to you because I want you all to pray for me and this company and Regiment and division. Luella Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Martin, Pamplin, is the county winner in the girls' division. Gene is a member of the Vera School 4-H Club, and Luella of the Lucky Clover 4-H Club. These two 4-H members have done outstanding work in their Electric Project during 1959-60 and it is on the basis of their records of work done that they have been announced as county winners.

Percy Lucado, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Lucado, Pamplin, and Gene Carson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Carson, of Route 4, will also be attending the Congress. Percy will present the same electrical demonstration he gave during the State Contests at the State 4-H Short Course held this summer in Blacksburg. Gene will be assisting with the over-all Electric Congress. Percy is a member of the Lucky Clover Community 4-H Club, and Gene of the Hebron Community 4-H Club.

Mr. G. D. Gilliam, Jr., Assistant County Agent, will accompany the 4-H Club members to the State 4-H Electric Congress.

Brucellosis Control Is Planned Here

Appomattox County will begin an official test for Brucelosis in cattle starting September 1, it was announced this week. This is a joint state and federal program. Tests for Brucelosis may be made now, without awaiting the project, but as of the above date, a project will get moving to test cattle for this disease. First on the program project, to work the area south of Route 460 and east of Route 727. The people in that first area will be contacted by postal card, from Dr. Calvin E. Seay, local veterinarian, who will handle the project. They will be advised of the date on which he will visit their farm.

Voluntary cooperation of all farmers is sought for this project. Any calves 4 to 8 months old will be vaccinated. Other cattle over 6 months old, except steers, will be tested. This service will be free to the farmer. It is part of a long-range program to control Brucelosis in Virginia.

This is a valuable service to all cattle owners, and it is hoped that Dr. Seay will receive full cooperation.

BRIEFS.....

Crops Need Rainfall

Scattered showers have brought relief in some areas of Appomattox county. Some areas had downpours of rain over the week-end. Yet, the general picture is that August has been a "dry month" and more rainfall is needed to round up the over-all harvest prospect.

Many growers have reported to The Times-Virginian that their tobacco prospects this years were excellent. But other crops depend at this date upon a general rain.

Market Opening

The Old Belt Tobacco Markets will open on September 8.

Early reports from markets to the South, indicate that bidding has been good for the 1959 crop, and if growers can go to market with quality leaf, they stand to reap a fine return on this years fine-cured crop.

Cannery Busy

Seasonal harvesting has brought the Appomattox Community Cannery into active use, and large groups of producers have been making use of this facility this week.

Books For Library

In response to an appeal in last week's Times-Virginian, well over 100 books and magazines have been brought to our office for relay to Prince Edward County for use in their private schools this session.

School Opening

Appomattox County schools will open on September 2 for the new session.

Woman's Club Board Meets

The Woman's Club of Appomattox will hold an Executive Board meeting on Tuesday, September 1, in the County Library, at 10 A. M.

The president, Mrs. Martin L. Webb, requests that all board members be present at this important meeting.

July 4th, 1864.
To Brethren of Liberty Church and Christian friends who greet there to worship God. I have been called to go through many dangers admidst the storm of battle, and that many of my comrades have fallen on my right and left, and yet I am spared and I want you Brethren to help me to thank God for his goodness and mercies to such an unworthy being as I am.

Brethren, the Lord has been so good in sparing my life and blessing me with health while so many are afflicted but goodness and mercies have followed me through all of the dangers.

Brethren, I write to you because I want you all to pray for me and this company and Regiment and Brigade. Many are wounded and many are sick. Brethren, we need your prayers. Brethren, I do not write to you in this way because I think you have forgotten your duty, but because we are commanded to speak often one to another, and being deprived of meeting with you in your prayer, or that I could meet with you in your prayer meetings, but being deprived of this privilege, I live resigned to my lot and hope the day not far distant when we shall meet and worship God as we have in days that have passed.

Brethren, if it was not for hope, I know (my) heart would fail me, but wins that hope in the Savior, that if I fall, I hope to fall in Hie Arms. I am cheerful and feel as a stranger here and hope Heaven is my home.

My love to you in Christ. May the Lord comfort and bless you all, you brothers in Christ.

D. M. Coleman.

—Brother Le Granede, my love to you. Read this when you have prayer meeting and let the Brethren know that though away, I have not forgotten them. Pray for us.
